I code, I have an urge to learn as much as possible and I am always glad to help others. I am a team player who wants to progress both individually and in a team. After a couple of years I see myself stepping into the path of project / product development manager.

I work with emerging open source technologies and appreciate well structured and maintainable code. I create web applications implementing restful apis, model view controller pattern, object oriented functional design, test and behavior driven development, putting user experience first.
